Crowne's attendance at the New England college was presumably due to the fact that his father resided in Boston for a time, toward the end of the period of the Protectorate. As soon as King Charles II was safely on his throne, the Crowne family returned to London. The son at least once recalled his undergraduate days, when he made a deposition, which is now in the British Public Record Office, stating that the Regicides, Walley and Goffe, resided in Cambridge University, of which deponent was a member, shortly after their arrival in America. This Bibliography of Crowne's publications is based on a section of the Report on Some Authors of English Literature, 1660-1780, compiled in 1902-03, which is largely responsible...
