Excerpt: .Appndcd DUBLIN UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL CLUB. ON Saturday, February 28th, the D.U.F.C. played Monkstown in the first round of the Leinster Cup Competition, and won by one try to nil. It was thought that Monkstown would be very easily beaten, as they had only succeeded in drawing the Second Fifteen a week before, and their team had been made very little stronger in the interval. They played, however, with great pluck and determination, while the Trinity forwards seemed unable to get together, and of the backs Tillie was the only one who was in decent form. It is only fair to add that two tries were disallowed which, to the ordinary spectator, seemed to be quite fair. On Wednesday, March 4th, the Queen s College, Belfast, travelled down, and met Trinity in the College Park. The match was played in the middle of a stonn...
