We had a cooky shine afterwards. The plans for our annual party are progressing rapidly. It is to take place on April fourth. We are all very anxious to make it a success. Next Saturday we are going to have an informal musicale for our patronesses at the home of one of the town girls. The Lincoln alumnae club, at one of their last meetings decided to furbish the chapter house up a bit. They have re-covered our pillows for us already and have bought us a new set of dishes and some silver. Nebraska Beta certainly has great cause for gratitude in the thoughtfulness and kindness of her alumnae. We were much pleased to welcome Martha Taliaferro, a...
