Bartley came home elate from Miss Kingsbury s entertainment It was something like the social success which he used to picture to himself. He had been flattered by the attention specially paid him, and he did not detect the imposition. He was half-starved, but he meant to have up some cold meat and bottled beer, and talk it all over with Marcia. She did not seem inclined to talk it over on their way home, and when they entered their own door she pushed in and ran up-stairs. Why, where are you going, Marcia? he called after her. To bed! she replied, closing the door after her with a crash of unmistakeable significance. Bartley stood a moment in the fury that tempted him to pursue her with a taunt, and then leave her to work herself out of the transport...
