All parts of the Bible are full of divine truths; but the truths that men need to know most are those which centre in Christ. Study the book of the Acts and learn the apostolic modes of preaching. The sermons of Peter and Paul are full of Christ. The historic facts about him--that he taught, was crucified, and rose from the dead--are the basis for the assurance that men may be forgiven and may have eternal life in Christ s name. The Holy Spirit with the Word.--Peter preached the truth about Christ, and at once God made the truth effective. He came while Peter was speaking. Ought not preachers and teachers to expect that the Holy Spirit will come even while they speak, and make God s were. Print a name at each end. Now Peter was a disciple of Jesus. Cornelius may...
