Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Marked Bible This little book from the beginning created a demand for its multiplication. The author, Charles Lindsay Taylor, was preeminently a soul winner and builder. He gave his heart to God at the early age of fifteen, and two years later dedicated his all to his chosen Master s service. The writer of this brief introduction became acquainted with him in his early Christian experience. There were times when together they labored for the salvation of souls. Frequent changes were necessitated on account of ill health, but never cessation of earnest work for his Master and for souls for whom the Master died. Educational work was part of his life. He taught in schools in California Georgia, Washington, Minnesota, Ohio, and Michigan, closing his teaching work in Emmanuel Missionary College, in Berrien Springs, in the state last named. In Sabbath school and missionary work he was greatly interested. His experience as a chaplain for years in a large sanitarium brought him into close and intimate touch with the sick and suffering. He was an indefatigable student, and the chief book in his life s course of study was the Bible. He had an exceptional gift as a clear, convincing writer, a spirit and style peculiarly impressive and sympathetic. His hundreds of contributions to the religious press attest this; and the two books, A Neighborhood Transformer and The Marked Bible, that came from his pen during the last two years of his life, written in pain and suffering, bring home to the heart in strikingly convincing power two great phases of truth. His great desire was to present Biblical truth involving a cross from...
