This vote was approved by all the members of the Faculty except the President, who was absent from the meeting and did not know that any such action was contemplated. This minute was transmitted to the Board of Trustees at their meeting, June 18th. The Board appointed a Committee to examine the question and directed that they report to the Board at a special meeting to be held Nov. 7th. This Committee consisted of Hon. W. I. Chamberlain, Mr. Joseph Perkins, Hon. S. E. Williamson, Mr. Samuel Andrews, Mr. L. E. Holden, Mr. W. H. Doan and Rev. Carroll Cutler. The Committee sought information from a very large number of the Presidents and Professors of those Colleges and other higher schools of learning, who had had experience in the joint education of men and women, and from a considerable number of those who had had no experience, but who were thought best able to present the arguments against it. The Committee met first on Sept. 15th, to consider the subject and compare the testimony which they had received, and again on Nov. 6th, to determine on a report to be made to the Board. The majority of the Committee, consisting of Mr....
